

SUNDAY LECTURE SERIES

2:00 – 3:30

(143 Union St. unless otherwise indicated – see map)

The Sunday Lecture Series features guest speakers who share their knowledge and areas of expertise with participants. Each lecture is followed by a question period. For more information please contact: Beth Dougan 613-549-1910

January 7

The First Spike: Early Transportation in Eastern Ontario
Steve Manders, Researcher, Explorer and Local Historian, Kingston

January 14

Down Inside: What is the Purpose of Prison?
Robert Clark, Deputy Warden (Retired), Correctional Services Canada, Author, Kingston

January 21

The Dawn of Civil Aviation: Legal and Technical Challenges
Gerard Chouet, Lawyer (Retired), Kingston

January 28

The Crisis of Inequality: An Economic Perspective
John Allan, Former Director, Fellow, Institute of Intergovernmental Relations, School of Policy Studies, Queen's University

February 4

Reaching for Insight: Understanding Through Multimedia
Lowell Cochrane, Science Communicator, Show Communications, Kingston

February 11

To Be Or Not To Be Shakespeare's Collaborator
Lars Thompson, Teacher (Retired), Author, Kingston

February 18

Grizzly Bears and People: Recent Research for Conservation of an Iconic Carnivore
Barrie K. Gilbert, Faculty Emeritus, Dept. of Wildland Resources, Utah State University

February 25

Signs of the Former Tenants: A Personal History of Poetry in Kingston
Eric Folsom, Kingston's First Poet Laureate, Member of The League of Canadian Poets

March 4

Russian Adventures: Moscow to Meinypil'gyno
Marjorie Bousfield, Wolfe Island

March 11

My Time Will Come: Gustav Mahler - His Life and Music
Rick Cairns, Musician, Teacher (Retired), Kingston

March 18 *

Borders and Belonging
Steven Heighton, Novelist, Poet, 2016 Governor General's Award Winner, Kingston

March 25 **

Madness in the Opera
Thais Donald, President Emeritus, Kingston Opera Guild and Northumberland Opera Guild of the Canadian Opera Company.

*This lecture is presented with the financial assistance of the Canadian Council through The Writers' Union of Canada

This lecture will be followed by the AGM. Refreshments will be served.

TUESDAY DISCUSSIONS

1:30 – 3:30

(Royal Kingston Curling Club – see map)

Individual participants speak on their special areas of interest and invite discussion (as listed below). For more information contact: Bill Reid 613-542-8590

January 9

Just What IS the Kingston 'North End'?
Group Discussion

January 16

Anticipating the Dawn of Artificial Intelligence
Group Discussion

January 23

Future Computers: Where To from Here?
Group Discussion

January 30

*Home Lies Where the Heart Is:
Or, Can You Ever Really Go Home?*
Group Discussion

February 6

Floral Gardens of the United States
Presented by Peter Ashley
Group Discussion

February 13

Luther's Reformation and the Consequences
Discussion Led by Paul Fritz

February 20

My thoughts and Yours on Writing a Memoir
Presentation by David Russo
Discussion

February 27

Classical Poetry Then and Poetry Now
Discussion Led by Jill Terrill

March 6

Miracles! Would You Believe?
Group Discussion

March 13

Pollution and Climate Change: How Local Is Local?
Group Discussion

March 20

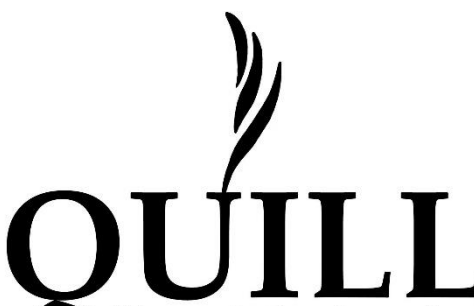

Origins of Early Americans Part I
Video Presentation With Group Discussion
Hal Boden, Presenter

March 27

Origins of Early Americans Part II
Slide Presentation with Group Discussion
Hal Boden, Presenter

“As long as I am learning something, I figure I’m OK – it is a decent day.”

– Hunter S. Thompson

Queen's Institute for Lifelong Learning

To join or learn more: www.quillkingston.org